

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
National Skill Standards	www.nssb.org	The NSSB is building a voluntary national system of skills standards, assessments and certifications that will enhance the ability of the U.S. workforce to compete effectively in the global economy.	High school High school graduates College graduates
National Society of Professional Engineers	www.nspe.org	A forum for young engineers and students looking for guidance from engineers in the field.
National Youth Employment Coalition	www.nyec.org	A non-partisan national organization dedicated to promoting policies and initiatives that help youth succeed in becoming lifelong learners, productive workers and self-sufficient citizens.	High school College
New Jersey Non-Traditional Career Resource Center	www.ncrc.rutgers.edu	The Nontraditional Career Resource Center is a program funded by the New Jersey Department of Education, and is housed at the Center for Women and Work at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. Their mission is to bridge the education and workforce development communities to increase awareness and opportunities for 7th through 12th grade students interested in nontraditional careers.
New York State Career Zone	www.nycareerzone.org/index.jsp	Sponsored by the State of New York Department of Labor and hosted by AT&T, this site offers a cluster-approach to career exploration based on the Holland organization scheme. Information on specific jobs can also be sorted by years of training required.
Next Steps	www.nextsteps.org/	A full featured employment, career development, and job finding resource for youth. Excellent.
NIST	www.quality.nist.gov	National Institute of Standards and Technology—this Institute enhances the competitiveness, quality and productivity of U.S. organizations for the benefit of all residents.	College graduates
O*NET Online	http://online.onetcenter.org	Occupational information network.	High school College
Occupational Outlook Handbook	www.bls.gov/o	Access the 2006-2007 Handbook with occupational information including working conditions, training, job outlook, earnings and related occupations.	High school College
Outcomes of School Career Development	www.ericdigests.org/19973/career	This ERIC document posits that career development programs in schools must do more than provide information.	Site can not be displayed
PA Apprentice Coordinators	www.apprentice.org	Helps students decide if they have the aptitude and ability to train for a career in the construction industry.	High school Vocational school

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Association			student
PA Association for Student Financial Aid Administrators	www.pasfaa.org	PASFAA is a professional organization established to encourage and assist the professional preparation, effectiveness and recognition of student financial aid administrators in postsecondary educational institutions and interested in the development of student financial aid programs.	High school College
PA Department of Education	www.pde.state.pa.us	PDE's website contains information for Pennsylvania's schools, teachers, parents and students.	High school College graduates looking for graduate school
PA Free Enterprise Week	www.pfew.org	An intensive program that educates high school students about the American free enterprise system.	High school
PA HRIC, Team PA	www.teampa.com	Business resource network.
PA Labor Market Information	http://www.dli.state.pa.us/	The Center for Workforce Information and Analysis is PA's designated provider of employment statistics.	College
Pathway Pals	www.pathway-pals.com	Pathway pals is a great guidance counselor website! Age appropriate and easy-to-use counselor resources Use pictures to find you favorite Career Pathway or Career Cluster. Middle School Interest Survey Focus is Pathways High School Interest Survey Focus is Career Clusters
Pennsylvania's Career Clusters	www.pde.state.pa.us/career_edu/llb/career_edu/career_clusters_book_04.pdf	This booklet focuses on a sampling of careers within the 16 career clusters. The information can greatly assist students focus on vital career information.	High school
PHEAA	www.pheaa.org	Preparing today's youth for successful careers tomorrow, this site is full of activities and information for students, parents, teachers and counselors.	High school
PHEAA Mentor	www.pheaamentor.org	PHEAA Mentor is a great site for college application, financial aid information, campus descriptions and more.	High school
Postsecondary Education Opportunity	www.postsecondary.org	Information for those who formulate, fund and administer public policy and programs about the condition of and influences that affect postsecondary education opportunity for all Americans.	High school College College graduates
Preparing Middle School Students for a Career	http://eric.ed.gov http://lume.tc.columbia.edu	Portal for resources in math and science; a guide to educational web resources.	High school College

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
QuestUSA	www.questusa.com	Send a resume on-line (free) and contact thousands of employers.	High school College
Quintessential Careers	www.quintcareers.com/index.html	Information on choosing and planning a career.
Roger Taylor Integrated Curriculum	www.robertaylor.com	This unique model includes specific application of the most recent brain research, multiple intelligences and constructivist hands-on project-centered learning in alignment with state defined benchmarks and standards	College Graduate schools
Role Model Project For Girls	www.womenswork.org/girls/careers.html	A "sampler" of careers for women, from the arts to trades.
Rubistar—Rubrics for Educators	www.rubistar.4teachers.org	Great resource links and rubrics for educators.	College Graduate school
Self-Directed Search	www.self-directed-search.com/index.html	The SDS has been used by over 22 million people worldwide and has also been translated into 25 different languages. SDS results have been supported by over 500 research studies. The SDS was developed by Dr. John Holland, whose theory of careers is the basis for most of the career inventories used today. Holland's theory states that most people can be loosely categorized with respect to six types: Realistic, Investigative, Artistic, Social, Enterprising, and Conventional
South Central Pennsylvania Career Information System	www.sccis.org/main/educators/	Contains many links to other excellent career sites with items of interest for students, job seekers, educators and career providers.	High school College Graduate school Counselors Administrators
Streaming Futures	www.kidzonline.org/streamingfutures/	Connecting teens with career advice from industry leaders and celebrities through online streaming interviews
Student and Professional Organizations	www.careernet.org/	Search career options, take career tests and see career descriptions.	Counselors High school College Administrators
Student Transition Alliance	www.studenttransitions.com	Follow seven recent high school graduates, each from unique backgrounds and diverse walks of life, as they explore new adventures and experience life after high school.	High school College
Studentjobs.gov	www.studentsjobs.gov	Search for jobs, create a profile, create a resume and search other job opportunities.	High school Counselors College Graduate school

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Teen Careers	www.teencareersks.com	A look at possible careers for teens. Check out the Begin By Taking a Look at Your Interests section at the bottom for an interest assessment. Discusses career clusters, sources for jobs, military occupations, Counselor's Corner, Parents' Corner and more.
The Catapult on Job Web	www.jobweb.org/catatpuit/catatpuit/	Find job search information as well as links to resources for career practitioners, including on-line career inventories.	New college graduates
The National Career Development Guidelines	www.ericdigsists.org	ERIC summarizes major activities of the National Career Development Guidelines initiative and suggests resources for those who wish to use the Guidelines.	High school College Graduate school Counselors
The Office of Personnel Management	www.opm.gov	Handy way to keep tabs on federal government job openings and salaries, from summer work to full-time careers.	High school College Graduate graduates
The Princeton Review	www.princetonreview.com/	A good site for information on practicing for your SAT's, on taking your LSAT's or MCAT's, on choosing a school and on the college admissions process.	High school College Graduate schools
The Riley Guide	www.dbm.com	From the author of The Guide to Internet Job Searching, this site offers links to information offering help with job search and job search resources.	College
U.S. Bureau of Labor and Statistics	www.bls.gov/	Employment projections, fast-growing occupations and other employment-related statistical data and analyses.	High school College
U.S. Department of Labor	www.dol.gov	Find jobs by topic, audience, top 20 items, by form and by location.	High school College
University of Waterloo Career Development Manual	www.cdm.uwaterloo.ca/index.asp	The Career Development e-manual is designed to help you consider these questions
USA Jobs	www.usajobs.opm.gov	The official site for federal government job openings.	High school College
USA Today Education on Line	www.usatoday.com/educate/careers/careers.htm	USA TODAY provides a daily window on the world of work. As new fields and jobs emerge and old ones change or become obsolete, the newspaper is there to chronicle these events. It focuses on people at various stages of their career, e.g., a young, successful entrepreneur, seasoned workers, or high-level CEOs of Fortune 500 companies. Students can learn about careers at every level, and from any field
Vocational Information Center	www.khake.com	Explore vocational and technical careers, check out the skills employers really want, find a trade school, research technical topics and take a look at the current job market.	Middle school High school College

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Vocational Research Institute	www.vri.org	Career aptitude and interest assessment, career planning and development, and educational resources. Includes Career Scope, APTICOM, Work Place Mentor ES-TIP, VITAS, and print resources
What Can I Do? With a Major In... (University of North Carolina)	www.uncwil.edu/stuaff/career/Majors/	College majors related to career fields.
What Do They Do?,	www.whatdotheydo.com	A look at what people do at work. Includes a long list of careers from Accountant to Veterinarian. For elementary students
What You Are	www.dowhatyouare.com	From Bridges.com, this site is a unique and powerful web-based career and college guidance solution based on the proven science of Personality Type. This program provides you and your students with critical information needed in the counseling process.	Middle school High school Counselors
Who Am I? Career Webquest	http://home.sullivan.k12.il.us/teachers/lawson/w ebcareers.htm	A webquest for high school students on career planning.
Wired Scholar (Sallie Mae, Inc.),	www.wiredscholar.com/index.jsp	A planning for college destination, including information on preparing, selecting, applying, paying, deciding, and financing higher education.
Wonderlic	www.wonderlic.com/	Employment recruiting, retention, and assessment resources.
Workforce Net	www.workforceusa.net	WorkforceUSA.net is dedicated to the work of workforce development. It is designed for the day-to-day needs of workforce development practitioners in community-based organizations, community colleges, private firms, employer associations, unions, economic development organizations, One Stop Career Centers, Workforce Investment Boards and elsewhere. It is intended as a site of shared learning.
Workforce New Jersey Public Information Network (WNJPIN),	www.njpin.net	State of New Jersey Employment Information Network for jobseekers, career explorers, and employers with links to many other sites.
XAP.com Plan A Career	www.xap.com/career	Evaluate interests, skills, personality and values to help determine possible career choices.	Middle school High school College

